

The Differences between Cape Town Shark Cage Diving and Gansbaai

We offer the best of the best shark cage diving trips in various locations, the most popular being Cape Town and Gansbaai. In order to make it easier to choose the location that best suits your requirements, we have listed the differences.

COMPARE	CAPE TOWN	GANSBAAI
Location ex Cape Town	45 minutes	3 hours
Total Guests	12 people - smallest in the industry	20 – 37 guests
Cage	4 persons	Up to 9 persons
Water Visibility	Seal Island - 7 Gill sharks 15-20ft to 40ft Cape Point - Mako & Blue sharks, 30ft with 60ft +	Average 6ft
Trip Duration	3 - 4 hours	2 - 3 hours
Shark Species	Bronze Whaler Shark (growing to 3.5 meters) 12 ft – 90% of trips at Seal Island Seven Gill Sharks 60% of trips at Seal Island Mako Shark 75% of trips offshore Blue Shark 95% of trips offshore	Bronze Whaler Shark 90% inshore Great White – 50/50 inshore
Other Sightings	65 000 Cape Fur Seals, Africa’s largest island based colony Boulders beach Penguins 2500 birds, just 2 minutes from launch site. Seasonally 3 whale species, Southern Right, Humpback and Brydes Seasonally 3 Dolphin species , Common, Dusky and Bottlenose. Up to 20 species of Seabirds recorded Spectacular scenery of Table Mountain & Cape Point visible simultaneously.	Seals swimming en route Occasional sightings of Dolphin and Whales in season Penguins and various other bird species

Nearby Attractions	Cape of Good Hope Nature Reserve (world's richest floral kingdom and various large mammal species). Kirstenbosch gardens Constantia Winelands Atlantic Seaboard with Hout bay & Camps Bay beaches	Penguin Sanctuary Wine farms
---------------------------	--	-------------------------------------